EASTERN MICHIGAN UNIVERSITY
ADVENTURES IN EDUCATION 1990
TRAVERSE CITY
July 30-August 3, 1990
The American Art Song & Choral Tradition
Presented by Emily Lowe and Derek Hyde

Professor Lowe of the Music Department at Eastern Michigan University and Dr. Derek Hyde, guest lecturer from Canterbury, England will introduce students interested in vocal study to a vast repertoire of American solo song literature in addition to in-depth study of a few selected works by each individual. Some choral works will be addressed also (ie, works by Barber, Bassett, Corigliano, Iannaccone, Rorem, etc.). Songs studied will include music of historical significance, works influenced by ethnic cultures, songs from the twentieth century — both easily accessible and those anticipatory of the twenty-first century. The instructors will address specific needs of individuals as time allows.

*Tuition for this two credit course is $83 per credit (Michigan resident), $197 per credit (non-resident) for graduate credit or $61 per credit (Michigan resident), $154 per credit (non-resident) for undergraduate credit plus a $30 registration fee. Dormitory housing is available at the cost of approximately $110 (five nights, room and board, double occupancy).

*Prices subject to change.
